Are you a history buff? Canberra is home to the treasures of Australian culture and Indigenous history and are awaiting your discovery within this specially designed itinerary.

DAY ONE

Morning

The National Museum of Australia is a social history museum, exploring the land, nation and people of Australia. It focuses on Indigenous histories and cultures, histories of European settlement and our interaction with the environment.

Lunch

Enjoy the stunning views from the Museum Café across Lake Burley Griffin with expansive windows and undercover seating on the outside deck and balcony.

Afternoon

The Australian War Memorial is one of the world's great museums. It is also the premier archive and centre for research into the history of Australian involvement in war. The Memorial commemorates the service and sacrifice of all Australian men and women in wartime. At the end of each day, commencing at 4.55 pm AEDT, the Memorial farewells visitors with its moving Last Post Ceremony.

Dinner

Marble & Grain offers a true gastronomic journey and dynamic delight for the senses. This award winning European Steakhouse Gastro Pub has a paddock to the plate philosophy, with a menu infused with passion and love.

DAY TWO

Morning

The Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House is the first and only museum dedicated to telling the story of Australian democracy. Be inspired by amazing real life stories of ordinary people who actively fought to shape today's society.

Lunch

Book a table at Pork Barrel for panoramic views of the stunning National Rose Gardens, and a fresh and casual dining experience. Famous for its gourmet pizzas, daily market specials and housemade sweets.

Afternoon

Parliament House is a symbol of Australian democracy. Home to the Parliament of Australia and meeting place of the nation, Parliament House is the focal point of Canberra, our capital city.

Dinner

Pialligo Estate Farmhouse is a feast for the senses; a sensational food, wine and lifestyle destination. Set on 86 acres with river frontage to the Molonglo, the Estate offers magnificent panoramic views of Canberra.

DAY THREE

Morning

Explore Australia's history on display at the National Archives of Australia, in the beautiful historical building that was the original Canberra post office. See documents, photographs, objects and multimedia in 'Memory of a Nation', a permanent exhibition tracking Australia's journey as a country, and other features such as the 'Faces of Australia' photo wall.

Lunch

Enjoy simple, delicious food, created using superbly sourced produce at Jamie's Italian. Great food, great value, beautiful surroundings.
